DEPUTIES' MEETING

Present: Mr. Dulles, General Cabell, Mr. Bissell, Mr. Amory,
Mr. Lloyd, Mr. Kirkpatrick, Mr. Barnes, Mr. Abbot
Smith, [redacted]

25X1

MR. DULLES:

a. Referred to the morning's Diplomatic Summary and to a State Department telegram from Vientiane, both reflecting upon the critical condition in Laos. A general discussion ensued as to what might be done by the U. S. Government, and Mr. Bissell pointed out that basically the Department of Defense has been advocating increased financial and military assistance for some time but that the State Department has been hesitant to go forward with additional aid. The Director then commented that a meeting had just been set up in Mr. Dillon's office for that afternoon to formulate just what action the U. S. Government will take with regard to Laos. He asked Mr. Bissell to accompany him to this meeting.

b. Referred to a cable from [redacted] relating the results of the [redacted] meeting with the [redacted] concerning [redacted] election support. After some discussion, it was agreed that it was not necessary for the Director to go back to the OCB at the present time for any additional funds.

e. Stated that he had had lunch with Elmer Staats and Gates Lloyd on Friday, and commented that they did not get into a discussion of the CIA budget but that Staats had expressed interest in receiving at an early date our response to a Bureau of the Budget request for a paper reflecting a comparison between U. S. and Soviet budgets. Mr. Amory stated that ORR was working on this paper and he would check into the status of it.

GENERAL CABELL:

Announced that he had been asked to attend a State-JCS meeting on 28 August which was being specifically called to discuss NATO, the new Central Treaty Organization (CENTO), and Laos. He stated that this meeting was to discuss various capabilities and that he planned to take both Messrs. Amory and Broe to the meeting with him.

MR. BISSELL:

25X1 Noted that [redacted] was getting ready to make a trip to [redacted] on coordination problems, and suggested that [redacted] should postpone this trip until after Jim Critchfield returns from a trip he is making to [redacted] during which he is sure to cover much of the same ground [redacted] will be interested in. After some discussion, it was agreed to bring this up at a later date just prior to [redacted] departure to determine if the time was then apropos for [redacted] to make the trip.
